

Joe Engel Tells Boss Griffith of Material Available in the Texas League

LOOKING 'EM OVER

By ..... LOUIS A. DOUGHER

"My Poy Choe" Reports to Boss

ST. LOUIS, May 20.—"My Poy Choe" Engel saw his first major league game here yesterday in many moons. It was a sort of lesson, President Griffith believing that unless the ivory hunter sees a earl game now and then, his carefully trained sense of baseball judgment is inclined to become faulty. Engel arrived from the wilds of Texas in time for lunch. While playing "Annie Laurie" on his purse of split peas he gave his boss a minute picture of baseball as it is played down in the Lone Star State. He insisted, among a couple of hundred other scintillating things, that Tommy Holohan is the one and only promising athlete in the Texas League. As this young man failed to impress Clark Griffith last fall, it is hardly expected that he will be jerked out of Billy Smith's Shreveport line-up.

Engel has received orders to keep his eyes peeled for a shortstop and a third sacker. It is becoming apparent from day to day that Frank O'Rourke is an erratic performer. Today he bettera Everett Scott, tomorrow Ellerbe in his equal. He is entitled to great consideration right now, though, as he is playing on sheer nerve. All the nails on his left hand are ragged and broken. He will lose them all.

How he grips the bat is known only to himself. Yet he is in there every day giving the best he has without complaint. It is really unfortunate that such a game lad is not blessed with better luck on his first real trial in a fast company.

It is possible, of course, that with hot weather his hitting may improve and his throwing become better. In that event he may complete the year with a respectable record.

SAME OLD SHANKS. Hank Shanks plays his same old game at third, showing plenty of infield sense with slowness on the hoof and a woeful inability to hold hot drives. Outside of that, Hank is a demon third sacker. And Engel will spend the summer searching for new players to succeed both O'Rourke and Shanks. That is big league fate, that's all.

Walter Johnson will probably be sent after today's victory, opposing Allan Sotheron or Dixie Davis. Johnson has been knocked off the slab in his last two starts, but the warm weather here may enable him to put his team ahead thus far on the trip. Yesterday the Griffs defeated the Browns in a dull, uninteresting combat, 8 to 5. Zachary toiled the whole distance, and, though winning, was always in trouble. His pals were kept busy saving him from several yawning graves.

ZEB GOT THREE. Bernie Boland with the luck of 7,000 fends from the pit, staggered along till the sixth in safety. Then he was pounded from the peak. The Griffs won the game right there in the sixth, shoving half a dozen runs across the platter.

Bayne and Burwell also slaved on the hill for the Browns with more or less skill. Zeb Milan dragging his lame leg, played right field and got three hits in five tries. He will remain in the line-up until he cannot move.

Bernie Boland, formerly with Detroit, was on the hill for the Browns when the clash started. He issued passes to Judge, Rice and Harris, exciting the anger of the populace, but Shanks ended the agony with a roller to Sisler, leaving his three pals on the path.

Johnny Tobin opened for the Browns with a clean drive over Rice's head to the fence. Lee Fohl sent his relay to Jacobson and fanned in his stead. So Tobin with a triple over Lewis head, sent Seveid across the plate and Tobin followed on Gerber's single to left. Sisler singled to right and when Milan let the ball roll through him to the fence Gerber scored and Sisler reached third. Williams ended the rough stuff with a roller to Harris.

Burwell, pitching in the eighth, was saluted by O'Rourke with a fine single to center. Garritty sacrificed. Burwell knocked down Zachary's hot one and O'Rourke was run down between second and third, but not till Zachary reached the midway. Sisler galloped far out and grabbed Judge's foul fly.

Milan opened the ninth with an infield two-bagger. His high bouncer hit off Burwell's glove and then off Gleason's shoes to right center where Jacobson retrieved it. Zeb, reached center on that fluke hit. Rice walked. Lewis doubled to left, scoring Milan and putting Rice on third. Harris popped to Jacobson in short center. Shanks raised a high foul fly for Seveid. O'Rourke pushed a little fly out to Jacobson and the Griffs were done for the day.

CROWDS' CURIOSITY AMAZES GEORGES

By JACK VEHOCK.
MANHASSET, L. I., May 20.—

Georges Carpenter's training camp is enveloped in a cloud of what one might call studied restraint.

The French champion, des Camps, his manager, Wilson, his trainer, and every one about the Matthews farm has taken on an air of calm politeness that a fidgety person might call camouflaged suspicion.

So many visitors daily demand entrance to the grounds that Carpenter and his associates are at a loss to reason it out. They are not used to such things on the other side of the pond. The Manhasset camp was selected to give Georges the quietude he has always sought in training.

Instead his camp is besieged by scores of curious fans and dozens of newspaper people he has never heard of before. Naturally enough he will take time to get used to it all. His schedule for today did not vary from that which he has followed since his arrival. He is simply lounging about, clad in the comfortable bathrobe, wearing off his sea legs and getting a good rest. He will not begin work in his gymnasium before the first of next week and there will be no boxing before June 1, according to des Camps.

His early work will be done with Journe, Marcot and several other sparring partners des Camps has in mind. Joe Jeannette will probably not be called upon before the second week in June when the real fireworks in the way of boxing will be started in earnest.

INSOMNIA GENERAL AILMENT

'Tis Said Sleep Begets Beauty

Those Who Walk in Their Slumber Can Make Extra Money by Getting Job As Night Watchman—Russian Language for Snoring.

By JOHN P. MEDBURY.
If their sleep have to strap themselves in bed. Otherwise they would go to sleep in Washington and wake up in Chicago.

A noted scientist says that sleep is the best thing in the world for beauty. If this is true then they're a lot of people around town who are suffering from insomnia.

Sleep would be a beautiful thing if snoring didn't have to go with it. Some guys go to sleep in English, but snore in Russian.

Americans who snore in Slovak will be safer from the Federal authorities if they go to bed in red, white and blue pajamas.

Some men even whistle when they snore. One patriot whistled the "Star Spangled Banner" for ten hours and his roommate had to stand up in bed all night.

It's hard to be patriotic at 3 o'clock in the morning.

Foreigners who talk in their sleep will be safer if they take out their first papers before they go to bed.

If they don't they're liable to go to sleep in the Waldorf and wake up on Ellis Island.

Some pillow pounders transact their business in English, eat in French and sleep in all languages.

A guy who talks in his sleep can have all the secrets he wants as long as he doesn't have an interpreter for a roommate.

A lot of women talk in their sleep, too, and this is where we get the term "the mother tongue."

Walking is another thing that goes with slumber. A guy will ride in a taxi all day while he's awake and then walk all night while he's asleep.

Sleep walkers get all tired out by morning and the best thing to do is to strap roller skates to their bedroom slippers.

Of course the average bedroom is very small and the best way is to go to sleep in a skating rink.

A lot of guys go to bed in a hiking outfit instead of pajamas.

Birds who walk in their sleep can make a little extra money by getting a job as night watchman.

Professional runners who walk in sleep in Washington and wake up in Chicago.

One slumber sprinter took a trip on the train from Los Angeles to San Francisco and walked up and down the Pullman car all night. He was foolish to buy a ticket when he could have hopped it there for nothing.

I'd walk a mile for a Camel

The pleasure is worth it. There's no substitute for Camel quality and that mild, fragrant Camel blend.

The fellow who smokes Camels, wants Camels. That's because Camels have a smoothness, a fragrance and a mildness you can't get in another cigarette.

Don't let anyone tell you that any other cigarette at any price is so good as Camels.

Let your own taste be the judge. Try Camels for yourself. A few smooth, refreshing puffs and you'd walk a mile for a Camel, too.
